WHO SAYS FEBRUARY HAS TO BE BORING?

Not us, we make our own fun!

Here's a couple of ways to brighten up a cold, dark month ...

CELEBRATE THE CITY!

We're teaming up next week with City Museum to "Celebrate The City" and commemorate St. Louis' 244th anniversary. Join us on Friday, February 15 at 9:00 p.m. for live music by The 7 Shot Screamers, record spinning by DJ Mark Lewis and "celebrity security" provided by The Arch Rival Roller Girls Female Roller Derby League. The night's festivities will be included with the regular admission to The City Museum that night. Best of all, O'Fallon 5-Day IPA & Unfiltered Wheat bottles will be for sale that night in the performance space. For more information go to City Museum's web site at www.citymuseum.org.

BEER TASTING TOURNAMENT

Can you tell the difference between Heineken and Busch? Pabst and Stag? Test your tasting talent at the Bottoms Up Brewhouse Beer Tasting Tournament on Monday nights at 7:00 p.m. Tony did a similar kind of promotion years ago when he and a buddy owned the Filling Station Lounge in south city, and he's helping out at Bottoms Up for the first few weeks. This is a great way to sample a number of different brands and styles of beer...and to find out if you really do have a discriminating! Each week is a new "round" and a new chance to win. Weekly winners will meet in a contest for the Championship at a date yet to be announced.

...however you spend your time this month, be sure to enjoy a good beer!

Cheers!
